Franklin Heating and Refrigeration helps families of Hocking County

COLUMBUS -Franklin Heating and Refrigeration, a local, family-owned HVAC company, helps the families of Hocking County through continuous support of the Smith's Chapel Food Pantry, a ministry of Smith's Chapel United Methodist Church.

Under the leadership of Dannie Devol, the food pantry feeds about 800 families a month through its volunteer-only efforts since 2000.

"We are so appreciative of Franklin Heating and Refrigeration for all they do for us, said Bob Lingo, Smith Chapel Food Pantry board member. "It takes everyone to make this work and we are just so thankful when businesses like them come to our aide."
